

Dowling News - Spring 2009

Paterson Catholic

Paterson Catholic High School has been very busy this year marketing the school lunch program. The cafeteria held many promotions including Chinese New Year, Mardi Gras and a Hawaiian Luau.

The Chinese New Year featured Sweet and Sour chicken (Pictured: Diane Layng)

The Mardi Gras featured the staff dressed in hats and leis (Pictured: Cafeteria Manager Rose Ann with Diane, Carmen, Mary and Jose)

The Hawaiian Luau featured the staff dressed in Hawaiian theme costumes. (Pictured: Katherine, Diane, Rose Ann and Mary)

ITALIAN FESTIVAL

Students at Deerfield School in Mountainside enjoyed a Pizza and Pasta Italian Day with guest Chef Tony Fusco. Tony is the Food Service Director at Union County Vo-Tech School in nearby Scotch Plains.

Hagit Tuvel, the cook for Deerfield, made individual pizzas using premade dough. After the first lunch almost all of the pizzas were gone! Almost the entire first lunch period purchased lunch. Hagit had to quickly make more pizzas for the second and third lunch periods. Meanwhile, Chef Tony conducted a cooking demonstration of pasta with sauce. He used ingredients such as garlic, parsley, cheese and sausages to season the sauce. The students would get their pizza from Hagit in the serving line, paid cashier Janet Debbie for their lunch and then proceed to Chef Tony for their pasta. Principal Philips handed out the garlic bread while traditional Italian music played in the background.

Pictured: Chef Tony Fusco

(Pictured: Hagit Tuvel, Chef at Deerfield)

(Pictured: cashier Janet Debbie)

Manager Joan Dippolito and her staff worked extremely hard throughout the event due to its popularity. Participation was triple what was expected, far exceeding counts for a typical pizza day. Feedback from the students indicate the event was a total success.

(Pictured: Chef Tony Fusco and Principal Philips)

DOWLING FOOD SERVICE MANAGEMENT, INC.

80A US Highway 206 Stanhope, NJ 07874 Tel: 973-691-9079

Fax: 973-691-8983

E-mail us at: dowling@aladdinfood.com

Visit us on the web at: www.dowlingfood.com

SCHOOL SNAPSHOTS

Morris Catholic High School Easter iTunes Card

Mary and winner RJ Morales

Mary and winner Dani Veltri

Pope John XXIII High School

Coke Taste Testing

SOMERDALE PARK SCHOOL

On March 2nd the cafeteria staff at Somerdale Park School celebrated Dr. Seuss' Birthday. They served the students Green Eggs and Ham for lunch. Cafeteria Manager Marlene Armstrong displayed a popular selection of Dr. Seuss books on the serving line, of course Green Eggs and Ham was the featured selection! The promotion included lucky sticker day with the winners receiving patriotic Dr. Seuss hats.

(Pictured: Student Winner Joseph Britt-Simpson)